DAILY COURIER.

PRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1858. Reading Matter on every page.

The Illinois Election. A special telegraphic dispatch from St. Louis. informs us that the Democrats have 40 members of the House of Representitives, against 35 Black Republicans. This being true, there can be but little doubt of the return of Douglas to the U.S. Senate. The Illinois Legislature meets on the second Monday in January, and soon thereafter, the vexed question will be settled. Lincoln may as well make up his mind to stay at home for the present. There will be no use for him in the thirty-sixth Congress. We don't know how much use there will be for Douglas.

Yesterday the order of Odd Fellows' illustrated its capacity, both in numbers and respectability. The occassion of the session of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, afforded a proper opportunity for the display of the strength of the fraternity in the State. There were hundreds of noble gentlemen present at the sessions of the lodge. There were undreds of other persons who heartily sympathized in the objects and actions of the meeting. The grand parade commenced at nine o'clock, starting from the Odd Fellows' Hall. The propession paraded the chief streets of the city, and throughout the line of march was received with the most gratifying attention from the populace. There were over twelve hundred in the line, rep resenting all degrees, classes, and conditions of The banquet, at the Mechanics Institute, was truly magnificent. It was thoroughly appropriate. Mr. C. C. Spencer, the Grand Marshal, displayed his true efficiency, and the Grand Treasurer, (Geo. Brobston) showed that he was a treasure indeed.

ONE OF THE OLD FELLOWS .- Mr. John Moore, living in the north part of Logan county, will be 105 years of age next spring. Last spring a year ago he walked twelve miles at one time, without ecciving any injury thereby. He has walked rom his residence in Logan county to Campbell county, Virginia, and back, seven times in his life. He is now in fine health and is able to work. but his eyesight is bad.

In another neighborhood in that county, there are four ladies who are each upwards of 90 years of age, in good health and very sprightly.

THEATER-BENEFIT OF MR. ANDERSON. -- We were glad to see last night, that Mr. Anderson was complimented with a full house, for his merit deserves nothing less. Without doubt, he is among the best actors who has ever trod the Louisville stage. In his benefit, which occurs to-night, he ppears in the "Elder Brother," and as Duke Aranza in the "Honey Moon." Mr. Anderson will, we are sure, be greeted with an overflowing

Big Dog Fight .- On Wednesday the "fancy" in the vicinity of Butchertown were entertained with a big dog fight, a regular match fight for $250 a side. The match was between a "42 pound" yellow dog, the property of Haskins, we believe, of New Orleans, and a "50 pound" dog, the property of Bell, of this city. It was a "scratch fight," in a ring, and won very easily, we are told, by the light veight yellow dog from New Orleans.

DANCING CLASS IN NEW ALBANY .- Mr. G. H. Gilbert, late of the Louisville Theater, has opened a dancing class in New Albany. He introduces the exercises at the American Hall at 7 o'clock P. M., this evening, to young gentlemen, and to misses and masters on Saturday at 10 o'clock A M., and at 2 o'clock P. M., Mr. Gilbert is a most competent teacher, and deserves the largest pat-

We call the special attention of furniture vers and house keepers to Mr. C. C. Spencer's ale this morning, at his auction rooms. A fine sewood piano, a large assortment of new and l paintings, in gilt frames, is included in the sale. Also a variety of house-keeping articles. A very desirable and centrally located brick ouse and lot, on Seventh street, between Green and Walnut, is to be peremptorily sold, at aucon, by Mr. C. C. Spencer, this afternoon, on the remises, at 31/2 o'clock. A good opportunity is ere offered to secure a valuable homestead at a DEDICATION OF A CHURCH .- A neat and handome house of worship was recently dedicated to he service of God at Dupont, Ind. Rev. John Mitchell, of Lexingion, preached the sermon and onducted the whole service, the pastor, Rev. Charles Lee, being too ill to be present. The house was filled to the utmost capacity, and the services vere deeply solemn and interesting.

The Portland railroad, just now, is about as dillatory and slow motioned as monopolies generally get to be. The cars start semi-oceasionally, and last evening had 60 passengers at one trip, and the mule couldn't go faster than a will be seen by his card. The prisoners convicted at the late term of the Criminal Court, who were sentenced by Judge Muir on Tuesday, will be conveyed to the State prison to-day.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS .- The communication we publish this morning is from one of the ablest pens in the State, and will attract attention.

The Directors of the South-western Agricultural Association meet to-morrow morning at The N. Y. Post, of Monday afternoon, records a heartrending circumstance as follows: Mademoiselle Piccolomini this morning met with a serious loss as she was returning from early mass, at the Twenty-eighth street Church. It appears that she either dropped, or was rob-bed of a beautiful chatelaine and watch set with diamonds, and valued at $500. As the watch was a present, she is very anxious to recover it, and offers the amount of its value to any one who We have two cargoes by the British screw propeller ships Cleopatra and Scotia, from Amoy and Hong Kong, since the 22d—804 live Coolies delivered, and served over the side with ocean burial, 200! from ship diseases and suicide—both cargoes consigned to J. Southern Railroads Profitable.—The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph authorizes everybody to say that Georgia has over twelve hundred miles of railroad built and paid for, and yielding to the stockholders more than an average of seven per centum in yearly dividends. Two hundred miles of additional roads are to be added to the present during the coming season. The southern railroads generally are profitable. In North and South Carolina they pay regular dividends generally. The fact is they build only such roads as are really wanted at the south, and build cheaply. There is no insane competition there.

Texas a Good Place for Children. George Kendall writes to the New Orleans icayune from his home in Texas:

In all my journeyings, both in the old world and n the new, I have never seen children so universally healthy as in this region. Here I will men-tion one sight which came under my own eyes and inspection. I started about sundown, one evening August last, for San Antonio, a full moon pleasant breeze rendering it more pleasant, both or man and beast, to travel at night than in dayfor man and beast, to travel at night than in daytime. About one o'clock in the morning I reached a house this side of the Salado, the occupant a German. I saw that the grass in front of his house was good. I knew that at that time in the morning I should find a cross and sleepy boy at the stable in San Antonio to take charge of my horse, and a half awake porter at the hotel to show me a room. The German meanwhile promised to bring me out a fresh shuck matres and clock me a room. The German meanwhile promised to bring me out a fresh shuck matress and clean sheets, and give me a cup of coffee at daylight in the morning, and upon these assurances I took up my quarters in the open road on the shady side of my wagon. Before lying down I noticed a species of tableau vivant over the fence, in the front yard, which one does not often see out of the open air and a targe of leaks at night loors in the open air, and at one o'clock at night.
retched upon a matress without covering, the ull, round moon shining down upon their fuller, counder faces, were five, chubby children, all fas sleep, and locking as cozy and as comfortable as cossible. On rising in the morning, from a refreshg sleep, near the wagon, I saw that the child: were already stirring, and that so far as health was concerned they were rude specimens.—
You have fine, hearty children," said I. "Yes, Texas is a good country for children," responded the father. "Always well?" I queried. "Always; he father. "Always well?" I queried. "Always had five children in Germany, and lost the Il; we have had five since we came to Texas, and ere they are." One of them, in particular, officed. He was a palpable specimen of the Teu onic genius, apparently between five and six ears of age, who had just shed his first set of eeth. he was standing immediately behind a buge slice of bread and butter, and was struggling his way through it with an appetite which made ample amends for his loss of teeth. A heartier sample of the rising generation it would be hard to find, and his brothers and sisters were all like him. Yes, to repeat the German's words, Texas s a good country for children. It is not every where that a brood of five little ones can be placed on a matress out of doors, and sleep all night in the open air with impunity. Yet here, we all do t. During the last two years I have slept, either in a Jersey wagon or on the ground, while trav-eling from place to place, fully one-third of the ime, and without once having a sign of a cold in Statistics of the Order of Odd Fellows.

Desperate Encounter with a Burglar at Clyde House Robbed and the Man Dangerously Wounded by the Burglar !- Great Excitement We learn by gentlemen who came from Clyde Wayne county, in the train this morning, that the village was in a state of great excitement in consequence of a bold burglary and desperate assault apon the owner of the house robbed. Some time this morning, before daybreak, the house of Wm. C. Ely, a well known citizen of Clyde, was entered by one or more burglars and robbed of a quantity of silver plate. About four o'clock Mr. Ely woke and saw a man standing by his bedside. He sprang from the bed and boldly grappled with the fellow.

A clinch was followed by a scuffle, in which Mr. Ely stringed the coat from the villain, but the Ely stripped the coat from the villain, but the scoundrei draw a knife and stabbed Mr. Ely in several places. With this weapon he got the advantage and made good his escape from the house.

Mr. Ely wrenched a revolver from the hand of the burglar, but did not succeed in using it. His own revolver was lying upon the table in the room ready for use. Mrs. Ely was awakened by the noise and ran out to give the alarm, while her husband was engaged with the robber.

Mr. Ely received eleven wounds from the knife of the scoundrel, and some of them are dangerous. Three physicians were in attendance upon him.

Ingles, a short time previous to his death, sold his farm of 400 acres to his son James, for $65 per acre, in eleven annual payments. It was contended by the remaining heirs, that the price was much less than its true value, and suit was brought to set aside the deed. They rested their action on the incapability of the old gentleman for contracting, by reason of unsoundness of mind. The jury stood nine for sustaining the deed, and three against it. BISHOP SPALDING THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND THE DEMOCRACY.

Editors Louisville Courier: - Having noticed with some interest a series of articles in the Courier, by Bishop Spalding, on the public schools, together with various editorials in the Courier, Democrat, and Journal, all indicating a possible re-opening of the public school question, as a political issue between the Democratic and the American parties, I beg leave to offer a few suggestions on the same general subject, contemplating it from the Democratic stand-point, and going to show the nexpediency of admitting among our party issues question of interference with the public schools as now established amongst us.

With a view to the least possible trespass upon your space, I shall aim to exhibit, in the briefest form, plain facts and principles, leaving it to the intelligence of the more thoughtful class of your readers, whom I have chiefly in view, to develope for themselves these suggestive hints and make heir own application of them.

In the first place, there is no call upon the Democratic party to make any such issue-nor any obligation to take up this quarrel between different classes of our citizens. It is true, indeed, that our Roman Catholic fellow citizens have very generally supported the Democratic party. It is, nowever, fair to presume that this support has een rendered simply from the conviction that the Democratic party was right. Indeed it would be inconsistent with the very genius of the Deocracy to ask support on any other ground .-It would be equally a reflection upon our Roman Catholic fellow citizens, to suppose that they had rendered their services in expectation of some quid pro quo, rather than from a conviction of the rectifude of the political principles of the Demo-

As there is thus no obligation to make this isue, so in the second place, every consideration of prudence forbids it. It is well known that among ill the causes which first gave Know Nothingism is hold on the popular heart, to the imminent langer of the Democratic, and to the utter overhouse of the White retrieved. throw of the Whig party, none was more potent than the alarm of the people at the hostility of the Roman Catholics to the public schools, and the consequent popular suspicion that one or the other of the great political parties might be disposed, in consideration of their support, to aid them in the overthrow of the school water. verthrow of the school system. And even if it were granted that the Democratic party has been aid under special obligation to our Roman Catalick for their steady support, it would be equally rue that the party has abundantly discharged the bligation by the support it has rendered them, turn, against the proscriptive spirit of Know othing ism, and that at no small cost and danger o its political prospects. It is asking too much, expect that now, so soon as the power and innence of the party have been fairly re-estab-hed, we should assume a mere incidental issue hich experience has shown to be so hazardous any party whose success rests upon the popular palding, with the present public school system, one which, if adopted by the Democratic party, one which, if adopted by the Democratic party, sust inevitably divide it into at least three hoste and angry sections. For though the theory Bishop Spalding, and that of the editor of the emocrat agree in the single point of excluding the Bible from the public schools, yet in every ther point, the difference between them is radical and irresconsible. The one after excluding the and irreconcilable. The one, after excluding the Bible, would introduce the ecclesiastical teachings freligion—the other, no religion at all. While third party, equally conscientious with Bishop palding against schools without religion, and qually averse to ecclesiasticism in the schools, on the editor of the Democrat, will bitterly arby themselves against the ecclesiasticism of the see, and the rationalism of the other. There can be no doubt that to-day as many intelligent Demrats can be found, whose conscientious convic-ons are as strong against public schools, without by Bible, as are to be found concurring in Bishop Protestant Bible. Suppose then, that under bemocratic auspices, the present school system is to be remodeled; which of these three parties are o give shape and life to the new Democratic system? A radical and irreconcilable division must sevitably follow; and thus a victory to the party

In the fourth place, were there no danger, either of arousing an irresistible opposition from without, or of creating a fatal schism in the party itself, the issue itself is one which can never carry the popular heart. If indeed, a clear case of oppression—especially of violence, to honest and oppression—especially of violence—to honest and easonable conscientious convictions can be made at, then the popular heart of America is easily armake it, in any such practical and tangible shape, as is level to the popular apprehension and actual enough to excite the popular heart. Scruples of conscience on such grounds as he presents, must seem to the mass of the people to be theoretic scruples of conscience only; the result of finely drawn reasoning and nicely balanced logic, as of one who is laboring to produce in himself scruples of conscience. No strong, earnest, sympathetic zeal, such as alone can give a political party success can be aroused among the people in behalf of a conscience thus laboring. Thus, for instance, the scruence thus laboring. Thus, for instance, the scru-against the use of the Protestant Bible in the loods can meet with little sympathy, while the ople know that in the first place the difference ther is purely theoretical, or the real ground of its scruple and the opposition to the school is ome other than the ostensible ground. It is man-estly impossible to arouse the popular mind on n issue of oppression of conscience made upon the grounds as these, and to be defended against ne scoffs and jeers and siftings of astute politi-such grounds as these, and to be defended against the scoffs and jeers and siftings of astute politicians in an excited canvass.

In the fifth place not only does such an issue fail, negatively, to excite the popular sympathy, but it involves positive principles which assail directly fundamental ideas of the American popular creed; and in sofar, must involve a support on the part of the Democracy, of measures directly antagonistic to its theoretic faith. With all deference to the learning and acuteness of Bishop Spalding, I must be allowed to express the opinion, that his very analogies and comparisons between the American and Austrian systems of public education, indicate a failure as yet, even on his part, to apprehend clearly the wide and radical distance between the American and the European idea of the relation of the State to public education growing out of the peculiar American idea of the relation of the State to the Church and to the family. Whether the popular mind here can or cannot give distinct articulate utterance to the fundamental truths which constitute its creed, it is manifest that these are among its general impressions on this whole subject:

1. That the Bible is the fundamental law of our civilization—not only the organou of our religion That the Bible is the fundamental law of our

1. That the Blote is the fundamental raw of our evilization—not only the organon of our religion—but also of our social structure.

2. That on this ground of the double aspect of the Bible, and its two-fold relation to our civilization, it should lie at the foundation, as well of our control of the structure of our religious adjustion. secular and civil, as of our religious education. s, that the State therefore, though naving no function to teach religion, may properly cause the Bible to be taught in schools provided by the State, on the ground simply that it contains the ethical code necessary to constitute a good citizen.

4. That therefore the use of the Bible in the schools of the State does not necessarily involve the teaching of religions by authority of the State. the teaching of religion by authority of the State, except in the broad sense in which religion, as an ethical precept, is essential to the citizen of a civlized society.

Such are some of the truths which enter as elements into the popular American idea of the relation of the Bible to our social and civil instituions. Now, on the other great point involved in this question of public education, namely, the ight of control in education, these may be reright of control in education, these may be regarded as the more prominent truths:

1. That there are three divine social institutions, the family, the state, and the church.—
Each having peculiar rights in its own sphere, not to be intringed upon by the other.

2. That as it is the peculiar end of the church to care for the spiritual interests of society, and of the state to care for their temporal interests, life, liberty and property; so it is the peculiar end of the family institution to saucate mankind for their taneous movement of the Roman Catholic family, under pressure of conscience, withdrawing their children from the public schools, the appeal to the Democracy might lie, but with the fact notorious that this movement is not spontaneous with the Roman Catholic family, but suggested and even enforced by the church, and that, therefore, this plea of conscience for the rights of the family, as against the church, originates with the church, and that church represented by men who have no plea of conscience for the rights with the church, against the church, originates with the church, and that church represented by men who have no family, of all other men the last who have any right to plead it, this presents altogether another aspect of the question to the American people.

Thus, in every aspect of the case, whether as a question of party obligation, of political prudence in reference to oppositon from without, or internal divisions; as a question of policy in reference to the popular will, or of high organic principle, it seems to me that the taking up of any such issue by the Democratic party, is folly little short of suicide.

A Puzzle for Underwriters and Lawvers. years ago a citizen of Louisville insured his manufacturing establishment. He afterwards erected an ell to the main building, and then insured both buildings together. Both buildings were injured by fire, and there arose a question as to the proper mode of adjustment. It was contended for the underwriter on the main building, he would be responding for a loss on the ell, which | were exhausted. his policy did not cover. So the circuit court decided; but the court of appeals reversed the deadjusted and subtracted from the sum insured on on the main building.

years, attests the importance of arriving at a right solution of the question presented. To that end, the views of such as may feel interested, are solicited. As a beginning, we offer our own:

We are aware it is held by a court of high authority, that where the subjects insured are not the same, there is no contribution; but this has See Howard Ins. Co. vs. Scribner, 5 Hill, 298; 1 Phillips on Ins. 204; Lincoln vs. Boston Mut. Fire Ins. Co. 9 Met. 205. Assuming as the true doctrine that contribution is required, what is the proper mode of adjustment? To show the incorrectness of that adopted by the Court of Appeals we have only to suppose a case: Let there be a srparate insurance of $7000 on the main building, $3000 on the ell, and $5000 on both buildings together, and a loss of $4000 on the main building, and $2000 on the ell. A correct adjustment of these losses under the mode suggested by the Court of Appeals, is impossible. In the applica. tion of that mode, we have different results accordingly as we begin on the main building or

ell. By beginning on the main building, there is of $2,333 83, and from $5000 the sum of $1,666 66 and there is payable on the ell-from $5000 the sum of $1,052 63, and from $3000 the sum of $947 87. By beginning on the ell, there is paya. ble on the main building-from $7000 the sum of $2,604 64, and from $5000 the sum of $1,895 26; and there is payable on the ell-from $5000 the sum of $1,250, and from $3000 the sum of $750. It is thus seen that there are two applications of the mode of adjustment suggested by the Court of Appeals with different results, as follows: . $7,000 pays $2,339 33, $5,000 pays $2,719 29 and $8,000 pays $947 37. 2. $7,000 pays $2,604 04, $5,000 pays $2,645 26 and $3,000 pays $750 00.

This showing of results, it is contended, fully confutes the mode of adjustment suggested by our Court of Appeals, as no one will contend that the underwriter on both buildings can throw a greater loss on either of the others as his option or interest may dictate.

It seems to us that the underwriter on the mai building should pay seven-twelfths of the loss on that building, and the underwriter on both ouildings should pay five-twelfths, and the underwriter on the ell should pay three-eighths of the loss on that building, and the underwriter on both buildings should pay five-eighths. Of course the whole sum to be paid by the underwriter on both buildings is not to exceed the whole sum insured by him. If this should not make good to the insured his whole loss, he cannot complain, since his loss reas arises from being his own underwriter to that extent. He has entered into solemn contracts, expressing the liability of the several underwriters, and must stand by their terms. The same remark applies to the underwriter on both buildings. A contest might arise between the separate underwriters as to the division of the sum to be paid by the underwriter on the two buildings; but that must be settled according to the rights and equities of particular cases, and constitutes no valid objection to our mode of adjustment.

Early Legislation Precedents.

We regard publicity in Legislative debates as so much a matter of course that we can scarcely realize a time when any contrary practice existed Yet in other countries, where legislative debates are held, the practice has been the other way, and even the Senate of the United States for over five years, always sat with closed doors. During the administration of Washington and Adams the annual messages of the President were delivered in person as inaugurals now are. Mr. Jefferson introduced the present custom of transmitting these annual messages by the hands of his private Secretary to both Houses.

One other curious fact is, the United States had no standing committees until 1816. Even the House of Representatives had no standing committees for ten years after the origin of Congress. Now neither branch is considered as fully organized until these standing committees are appoint. ed; yet one House existed ten and the other twenty-seven years without any such committees.

During a portion, at least, of Gen. Washing. ton's administration he met in person with the Senate to make executive nominations, and also growing rather late in the season. to consider treaties with foreign nations and In. dian tribes. The practice has long since fallen into disuse. All treaties are negotiated by the Executive and communicated for approval to the Senate, and all nominations are transmitted in

The first time the doors of the Senate wer opened for public discussion was on the contest es to the right of Albert Gallatin, elected by the Penn Legislature to a seat in the Senate. This seat way contested on the ground that Mr. Gallatin had not been, as the Constitution required, nine years a citizen of the United States. The persons con. ducting the contest of Mr. G.'s seat were heard by an attorney and also a member of their Senate on his behalf, and on the last day of February 794. Mr. G. was ousted of his seat in the Senate About the same time a resolution was adopted de claring that after the close of that session the doors of the Senate should be opened while in Legislative debate. The Senate still adhers to closed doors while engaged in what is called Ex-sale, this morning, (Friday) at 10 o'clock, at auction room, of some two hundred boxes of prescription vials and fancy perfumery bottles, hock wines, and pint and half pint flasks, and carboys, to which the particular attention of druggists and apothecaries is called. Increased Taxation. To-morrow is the day fixed for taking the sense of the people upon Gov. Helm's railroad ordinance If the people vote for this ordinance they will thereby decide to tax themselves $300,000 more, to be paid in one, two, three, and four year installments. Each annual installment will be $75,000 which would require the property owners in the city to pay about 21 cents on each one hundred dollar's worth of property.

Our taxes, as they now stand, are $1 05 advaorem on each one hundred dollar's worth of property, 20 cents more for railroad purposes, 10 cents more for gas, and 10 cents more for water. The total is, therefore, $1 45, which will be increased by the ordinance to $1 66, on each one hundred dollar's worth of property in the city. The water company want $150 000 more to insure the completion of their works; another tax of at least 10 cents will be called for by them, though it will be impossible, under the charter, to give them more than 9 cents, if this ordinance is voted for to-mor

are new Pianos in this market, but they are well known in many sections of the country as an A No. I instrument. Competent judges who have tried them pronounce them fully equal, if not superior, to the Steinway & Son's Pianos. They are a beautiful, highly finished instrument, and we can sell them at three-fourths the price of a Chickering Piano, as we do not have to pay anything for their name or reputation. We still keep a full supply of the New and Improved Scale of Chickering & Son's Grand, Paulor Grand, and Square Pianos, and as we are Cash Dealers in them, we can sell them unsually low for cash. We have also several other makes of Pianos, all of which we warrant to give perfect satisfaction. We respectfully invite strangers visiting the city during the Fair, and all others in want of Pianos, to call and examine our complete stock, for we are selling exceedingly low for cash. THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA.

DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS. LIVER COMPLAINT, Weakness of any kind,

And all the various affections consequent upon a diseased STOMACH OR LIVER, Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Cos-tiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided care.

Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on scrictly scientific principles after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Borhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for shose of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTIOE—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a greatful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

CAUTION: The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has in-duced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Berhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince how infinitely supefor it is to all these imitations.

The proprietor, in calling the attention of the public to his preparation, does so with a feeling of the atmost con-dence in its virtues and adaptation; o the diseases for which it is recommended. which it is recommended.
It is no new and unried article, but one that has stood the test of a ten years' trial before the American people, and its reputation and sale is unrivalled by any similar preparation extant. The testimony in its favor given by the most prominent and well-known Physicians and individuals in all parts of the country is immense, and a careful perusal of the Almanac, published annually by the proprietor, and to be had gratis of any of his Agents, cannot but satisfy the most skeptical that this remedy is really deserving the great celebrity it has obtained.

THE RIVER, yesterday, was falling slowly at the head of the falls, and by dispatches it appears that it is also falling at Cincinnati. In the canal, last evening, there were four feet three inches wa ter, with exceedingly bad, cloudy, cool weather, and several attempts to rain, during the day. At Pittsburgh, yesterday afternoon, the river swelling, as we learn by a special dispatch to the captain of the Hazel Dell, with thirty inches water in the channel, and a prospect of more water.

The Hazel Dell arrived from Cairo, and is advertised for Pittsburgh, by which it would appear that the captain has faith in the prospects in that quarter. By special dispatches from Nashville, yesterday, we learn that the Cumberland river was falling, with only eighteen inches water on the shoals, and clear weather. This news is rathern that the company of the proposition.

er uniavorable for navigation, and the Tempest has been laid up until next week. The star packet John Gault has been withdrawn

The star packet John Gault has been withdrawn from the Cairo trade, and will be laid up a while, as the river is rather too high for her, and freights rather too low to make the Cairo line profitable just now. Capt. Bunce will probably bring her through the canal and load for Nashville.

The Missisippi river at St. Louis, has risen, all together, ten feet, with a rise in all the tributaries, including the lilinois. This will make a good stage of water in the lower Mississippi, and the chances of raising the H. D. Newcomb, sunk at island 21, are very precarious, if not hopeless. island 21, are very precarious, if not hopeless.

The bell boat company, however, have hopes, and are still at work on her.

The Telegraph No. 3, did not start out for Cincinnati in the mail line as anticipated, owing to the unfavorable reports of the water. The river did not rise enough for her, and the little Kentucky remains on the track. tucky remains on the track.

The following items we copy from the Cin-tinuati Commercial, of yesterday:

The pilots belonging to the Association recently or-anized here, are demanding $300 to take a boat to New biesus, and $500 for the round trip. We understand, lowever, that the Wm. Balrd yesterday secured her pi-ois at $4 of the round trip.

Capt. Ban. Conway is busily engaged in superintendg the completion of his new and splendid side-wheel acket. Forest Queen. The last of her machinery was hipped to Madison yesterday, and the new packet will seneady for business within four or five weeks.
Capts. Woodburn and Chambers came down from Pittsburgh yest-rday. They have concluded to load the Joe Conn for New Orleans.

At Parkersburg, Wednesday evening, below Wheeling, there were five feet water in the channel, and the river rising. The rise was sup-posed to be from the Lattle Kanawha. The Kanwha river was also reported rising.

The Ohio No. 2, from Marietta, arrived at Cin nnati Wednesday, and reports 3 feet on Blennercannal wednesday, and reports 3 feet on Blenner-hassett. When the Ohio passed the mouth of Kunawha, there was a report of a rise in that stream, which is no doubt correct, as the rains have extended through that region. The Ohio met the Courier aground on Blanney, Swallow at Bellville, Baltimore and Rochester at Swan's Bar, passed Liberty at Buffington, rubbing over.

THE MARTHA PUTNAM - CARGO ABANDONED. - The lartha Putnam, which had a hole knocked in her bottom on the rocks at Shawneetown, mention of which was made in the Courier, arrived here yes terday on her way to Madison or Cincinnati. She did not make much of a stop, and did not have her freight on board. She started from Cairo with the freight of the Fanny Bullitt, including a considerable quantity of sugar for merchants in this city, a portion of which was slightly damag-ed. She discharged the carge on the shore at or wear Shawneetown, and there it remains.

GREEN RIVER RISING.—By a letter from a cor-capondent in Morgantown, received last night, the learn that there has been three days rain along kreen river, and the river had risen two feet in a short time, and was then rising, making a gable for steamboats. The dams are all in good gable for steamboats, at any of the locks. rt time, and was then rising, making it navirepair, and no obstructions at any of the locks.

The Harrison Bridges, Capt. C. A. Everhart, having been detained, starts to Bowling Green this evening. She is in fine order, with the neatest cabin ever seen in the Green river trade.

Business at New Orleans, despite the ep demic, has thus far, this season, far exceeded that of the former, with receipts of 55,223 bales of cotton for the week ending Saturday last. The arrivals consisted of ten boats from St. Louis and one from Cai.o. There was not an arrival from the Yazoo, Cumberland, Ohio, Arkansas, Tennessee, or White rivers, and but two out of the Ouachita, and five from Red river. The Missis sippi had been rising for four days, and stood 12 teet 7 inches below high water mark.

SOUTHERNER FOR MEMPHIS .- The fleet low pres sure Southerner of the regular line, is the mail and passenger packet for Cairo and Memphis this evening. She starts at 5 o'clock, from the Portland wharf, in charge of the accomplished Capt. Geo. W. Triplett, assisted in the clerk's office by the indefatigable and esteemed Capt. J. B. Archer, who has made the trade so popular by his untiring attentions.

THE JOHN RAINE-LIGHTNING LINE .- The magificent new steamer John Raine, is due from airo this evening, and will start direct to New rleans to-morrow, Saturday evening, from Port-Orleans to-morrow, Saturday evening, from Portland. She takes no freight, and Capt. Palacio, the clerk, being now in the city, having most of her state rooms engaged to passengers, she will go without fail. The John Raine has been laid up at Cairo since summer, and this is her first trip. THE HIGH FLYER FOR NEW ORLEANS. -The splendid new packet High Flyer, Capt. Tom Wright, takes her departure to New Orleans direct, tomorrow (Saturday) evening, from Portland. She has all her freight engaged—and passengers, on application to Sam.B. Halliday, the clever and attentive elerk, one of the very best in the tradecan secure good rooms. Her cabin is as neat and comfortable as can be found anywhere.

The cargo is insured in local offices here, and the underwriters are somewhat uneasy in regard to it, as a heavy interest is involved. In order to secure the freight, and save themselves from loss, hey have deputed Capt. A. McGill to go to Shawtown and hold a survey and secure the aban-ned eargo. Capt. McGill promptly accepted e important trust, and started to Shawneetown on the Challenge last evening.

The Wm. Baird was supposed to have left Cincinnati Wednesday, for the South, but we have not heard of her yet. The Judge Torrence, and Monarch, were loading at Cincinnati for New Orleans. They couldn't load very deep, as there are but four and a half feet water on the flats, and no doubt they draw

FOR OWENSBORO.—The ficet packet Eolian, Captain Logan, starts to Owensboro and all way places, this afternoon. She starts at four o'clock, from Portland. The clerk, Alf. Hall, is always courteous and attentive, and passengers and shippers will find the Eolian a good boat, her officers reliable, and a decided acquisition to the trade.

The Woodpown We learn by dispatch form The Woodpord.—We learn by dispatch from Cairo, that the Woodford left Cairo Wednesday for this port. She is due this evening, and will start direct to New Orleans on Tuesday evening

FOR THE EAST.—The Superier, a most excellent bost, is the regular mail packet for Cincinnati to-day. She is in charge of Capt. Dittman, with our courteous, popular friend, R. S. Dunning, in the clerk's office.

The Tempest and John Gault, the regular Nashville packets, will not start out before next week. Capt. F. C. Gwathmey is the regular freight agent of the boats in this city. The tributaries of Kentucky river were eported rising, but the Kentucky at the mouth was falling, yesterday, by which it would appear that the rains were not very heavy.

The Brandy, Old Bourbon, Holland Gin, Port, Madelra, Sherry, Champagne, Catawba and Claret Wines, also the Cigars and Tobacco with which my bar is adorned, have been purchased, regardless of high prices, from old correspondents, and are therefore justly deserving the high enconiums which "connoisseurs" have been pleased to bestow upon my plain and combination-drinks, each and all of them prepared and handed out in "cour own inimitable style." CLOTHING TRADE!

NO dealer in Clothing who visits our market is unacquainted with the firm of LICHTEN, LEWENTHAL & CO., And whoever has once been dea.ing with that house will appreciate the superiority of their stock, its variety, and the unsurpassed taste of its getting up, over all and every competition.

This notice therefore is more especially addressed to those dealers at a distance who have not hitherto had an opportunity of availing themselves of the manifold advantages offered and inducements held out by the above named firm, and a general invitation is herewith tendered to them to examine L. L. & Co.'s stock before making their ultimate selection.

It has been the constantistudy of the firm to distance all competition; with this view their well-known FACTORY IN NEW YORK has been established and FRENCH CUTTERS engaged, and one of the partners is permanently located in New York, where every novelty in material, pattern or cut, is at once incorporated into their stock.

A great variety of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods is also constantly kept.

DAMASKS, DIAPERS, &C.

ONSUMERS of RIGHARDSON'S LINENS, and those of desirous of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the farm,

as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the Goods.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season, and sealed with the name of RICH-ARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the tojury thus infilicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable, while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless character.

MPERP'S WEATHER STRIF LOOK I'ME subscribers beg leave to inform builders and thers, that they have purchased at a high price
the right for Kentucky of "SEER'S WEATHER STRIP LOOK," an article which has only to be seen to commend itself to architects and builders. It is very simple in its operation, cannot get out of order, is a perfect weather and dust guard, is secure against the operations of burglars, prevents all noise by the wind and slamming, and is cheaper and better for French windows than any article yet invented.
We now offer the right for every county in Kentucky, except Jefferson, which we reserve for ourselves, for sale on such liberal terms as must make it a profitable investment.
